About The Program

The following topics are available:

About Multimedia Music Theory and Music Glossary

Copyright Information

Credits

Multimedia Music Theory and Music Glossary

Music Theory

This self-paced course uses interactivity, animation, and plenty of audio examples to help you understand and appreciate the fundamentals of music. Eight lessons cover the Nature of Sound, Melody, Harmony, Tonality, Notation, Rhythm, Harmony & Texture and Form & Style.

Music Glossary

Learn the language of music in the Music Glossary. Click on a term to hear how it is pronounced and see a definition. Additional illustrations and musical examples accompany complex terms.

Audio Controls

From the main Theory screen, you can turn musical examples on or off by clicking on the M at the bottom of the screen.   In the Music Glossary, you can turn narration (voice) on or off by clicking on the V located on the bottom of the screen.

MediaCheck™

Voyetras MediaCheck diagnostic utility is also included on the disk.   MediaCheck helps you analyze, configure and troubleshoot your multimedia PC, and includes a detailed how to video to help you set up your system and connect components.

Copyright Information

Multimedia Music Theory and Music Glossary

Version 1.00

August 15, 1996

Copyright © 1996, Voyetra Technologies

Multimedia Music Theory and Music Glossary is a trademark of Voyetra Technologies. All other product names are the property of their respective companies and are hereby acknowledged. Music selections and arrangements are copyright © 1991-1996 by Voyetra Technologies; 1994 by Musikus Productions, Inc. Multimedia Music Theory and Music Glossary was conceived, designed, and produced by Voyetra Technologies.

Warning!

Credits

Head Designer: E. Gray Fowler

Director: Clifford A. Parms

Content Specialist: Hugh Berberich

Graphic/Audio/Video Processing
   Michael P. Costantino
   Carlos Crespo
   Keith Nitsch

Programmers:
   Ralph Bellofatto
   Richard Kagle
   Mike Schechter
   Amit Lissack

Documentation:
   Keith Nitsch
   Clifford A. Parms

Quality Control:
   Tom Colwell
   Andrew P. Toomey

Narration: Hugh Berberich

MIDI Files and Vocals: Hugh Berberich and Michael P. Constantino