

1998

Basically, another Mustang. The 4.6 cam engine was horses to 225hp became received a modified center console with armrest, cup holders with an optional drop-in ash tray; dual 12-volt power points, and CD cassette storage. A dash-mounted clock pod, introduced in 1997, was removed for '98.

carryover year for the liter, V-8 single overhead kicked up another ten and air conditioning standard. All models

Safety features included second generation de-powered driver and front passenger air bags; high-strength side door intrusion beams; three-point lap/shoulder safety belts, and a passive anti-theft system.

Available in either coupe or convertible, and in basic, GT or Cobra configuration, starting prices ranged from $16,500 to $29,000.