Media Browser Help

Media Browser is a Windows application that you can use to listen to sound files.

Click an area in Media Browser to learn about it.

•	Media Browser	•
Collections	Sounds
Bells Explosions	Big Ben • Grandfather clock Play Sound Cuckoo About Handbell Help Alarm clock Set Sounds
File Information Description:
Picture: File Name: Hndbell. Duration: 2.5 seco	Wav Handbells have been popular since the 12th century. Each bell in the set is tuned to a different note of the scale.

Collections

Choose an icon to list the sound files in that collection.

Sounds

Scroll down to see the titles of all the sound files in the selected collection.

To listen to a file

• Double-click the file title.

Or

• Select the file title, and then choose the Play Sound button.

Close

Choose this button to exit Media Browser.

Play Sound

Choose this button to hear the selected sound file.

About

Choose this button to display information about this version of Media Browser, and about the sound device in your system.

Help

Choose this button to open this help window.

Picture

Displays the picture associated with the selected sound file.

Set Sounds

Choose this button to open the Sound Control Panel, where you can attach sounds to specific system events. You can save these settings as schemes.

File Name

Displays the name of the selected sound file.

Description

Displays more information about the selected sound file.

Duration

Displays, in seconds, the length of the selected sound file.