

Cosmic Dare (Pretty with a Pistol)

Music by: Yoko Kanno and the Seatbelts

You and I are getting own words
You and I are wondering worlds
Apart from each other, joined at the heart

You and I escaping the earth
Chasing tears for all that it's worth
Apart from each other, joined by the heart

Can you believe me?
Still sitting pretty with a pistol in hand
Living to love you, will you be my man?
If I beg? If I pled?
Would you please, please, please
that its by me

Anything goes in this cosmic dare
Anything goes, so I take care
Did you hear my heart beat to your lies?
So listen close, sweet love of mine....

Do do do yeah

You and I are traveling time
You and I are moving its climbing to the more never never say never we told

You and I are floating in space
You and I are waiting to make the most of the moment alive in the silence of space....

Can you believe me?
Still sitting pretty with a pistol in hand
Living to love you, will you be my man?
If I beg? If I pled?
Will you please, please, please
that its by me

Anything goes in this cosmic dare
Anything goes, so I take care
Did you feel my heart beat to your side?
Momma more, sweet love of mine....

Sweet love of mine.....

Ohhh yeah...

ohhhh sweet love of mine

Yeah...

Anything goes in this cosmic dare
Anything goes, so I take care
Did you hear my heart beat to your side?
Momma more, sweet love of mine....

Do do do yeah.....
