More Information -

Specific Information about the Programs -

Product listings and basic registration and technical support issues. Possibly a list of other products and services offered by MMPI and/or the developing author.

The more button will probably jump to another screen which will allow running, installation, and un-installation of the individual programs... and the above information will appear elsewhere.