

The inferior lateral angles are where the lower parts of the sacral alae curve medially towards the body of the fifth sacral vertebra.

The coccygeus muscles and sacrospinous ligaments attach to the ventral surfaces of the lateral angles and gluteus maximus attaches to the dorsal surface.