

The articular facet for the dens is a concave circular facet located on the posterior aspect of the anterior arch of C1 (atlas), where it serves as an articular facet for the dens (odontoid process) of C2 (axis).