

The inferior articular processes of the C2 (axis) project inferiorly from the pediculo-laminar junction, posterior to the transverse process. Each has an antero-inferior facing articular facet.