

The inferior articular facets of the axis are situated on its inferior articular processes. These facets are oval, slightly concave in shape and face antero-inferiorly for articulation with the superior articular facets of C3 at the zygapophyseal joint.