

Laterally, the laminae of C2 (axis) are thick, strong and concave. They run postero-medially, thereby forming a connection between the pedicles and the spinous process. Ligamenta flava pass from the superior and inferior borders to adjacent borders of C1 and C3, respectively.