

On the anterior aspect of the dens (odontoid process) lies an ovoid, vertically orientated facet. It is covered with hyaline cartilage and articulates with the facet on the posterior aspect of the anterior arch of C1 (atlas) at the median atlanto-axial joint.