

On the postero-lateral aspect of the apex of the dens (odontoid process) are ovoid flattenings that give attachment to the alar ligaments.