

The superior articular facets are convex or flat ovoid facets, which are oriented in a postero-superior direction. They are covered with hyaline cartilage and articulate with the inferior articular facets of C3 at the synovial C3/C4 zygapophyseal joints.