

These grooves are located on the concave superior surfaces of the costal lamellae. Posterior to the foramina transversaria are the sulci for the third cervical ventral (anterior) rami of the spinal nerves.