

The superior articular processes, which bear the superior articular facets, project superiorly from the pediculo-laminar junctions.