

The inferior costal demifacets, which articulate with the superior facets on the heads of the seventh pair of ribs, are shallow and concave facets. They are located on the postero-lateral aspects of the lower margin of the vertebral body, anterior to the inferior vertebral notches and are covered with hyaline cartilage.