

The superior costal demifacets, which articulate with the inferior facets on the heads of the sixth pair of ribs, are shallow and concave facets. They are located on the postero-lateral aspects of the upper margin of the vertebral body, anterior to the superior vertebral notches and are covered with hyaline cartilage.