

The eleventh and twelfth thoracic transverse processes are replaced on each side by three small tubercles. The superior tubercles are the largest and project superiorly corresponding to the lumbar mamillary processes.