

The eleventh and twelfth thoracic transverse processes are replaced on each side by three small tubercles. The inferior tubercles project inferiorly corresponding to the lumbar accessory processes.