

The eleventh and twelfth thoracic transverse processes are replaced on each side by three small tubercles. The lateral tubercles project postero-laterally corresponding to the lumbar transverse processes.