

The superior articular processes project superiorly from the pediculo-laminar junction and bear concave oval articular facets covered in hyaline cartilage. On the posterior border is the mamillary process.