

The inferior articular processes project inferiorly from the pediculo-laminar junction and have oval, convex articular facets covered in hyaline cartilage.