

The oval, concave inferior articular facets located on the inferior articular processes face laterally and slightly anteriorly. These facets are covered in hyaline cartilage and articulate with the superior articular facets of the vertebra below at the zygapophyseal joints.