

The small accessory processes are located on the postero-medial aspect of the root of the transverse processes and give attachment to the medial and lateral intertransversarii muscles.