

On the surface of the superior articular processes lie vertically positioned oval, concave articular facets known as the 'superior articular facets'. These facets are covered in hyaline cartilage and articulate with the inferior articular facets of L4 at the L4/L5 zygapophyseal joints. The superior articular facets are oriented medially and slightly posteriorly.