

The laminae are short and broad and pass postero-medially from the pedicle to the base of the spinous process.

Ligamenta flava attaches to the superior and inferior borders and rotatores lumborum attaches to the lateral surface and inferior border.