

The spinous process of the lumbarized first sacral vertebra is a tubercle located at the junction between the laminae.