

The inferior articular processes of the lumbarized first sacral vertebra project inferiorly from the pediculo-laminar junction. The processes have vertically oriented oval convex articular facets covered with hyaline cartilage that articulate with the superior articular facets of S2.