

The superior articular facets of S1 are located on the surface of the superior articular processes. They are covered with hyaline cartilage and typically face postero-medially to articulate with the inferior articular facets of L5, at the L5/S1 zygapophyseal joints.