

The inferior articular facets are located on the inferior articular processes. They are vertically orientated and antero-laterally facing, oval, convex facets (covered with hyaline cartilage), which articulate with the superior articular facets of S2.