

The supraspinous ligament attaches to the tips of the spinous processes and the posterior borders of the interspinous ligaments from C7 and typically terminates at the level of L4, however can reach as low as S1.