

Proximal Attachment

Rectus capitis posterior minor arises by a narrow pointed tendon from the posterior tubercle of C1.

Distal Attachment

The muscle broadens as it ascends to attach to the medial part of the inferior nuchal line and occipital bone to the foramen magnum, medial and deep to rectus capitis posterior major.