

The intra-articular ligaments are short, flat, thick bands passing from the crest of the rib head laterally to the intervertebral disc medially, dividing the joint cavity into two parts. The ligament is absent in the first, tenth, eleventh and twelfth costovertebral joints.