

The spinous tubercles of the sacrum are palpable in the midline below the spinous process of L5, as a line of tubercles or as a continuous crest as far inferiorly as the coccyx. The tubercle of S2 lies at the level of the posterior superior iliac spines.