

The sacral cornua are small prominences approximately 1cm either side of the upper part of the natal cleft.