

A dermatome is the area of cutaneous distribution of a single spinal nerve; there is considerable overlap between adjacent dermatomes.

The third thoracic spinal nerves supply a band of skin around the thorax over the third intercostal spaces extending to the middle of the second intercostal spaces above and the fourth intercostal spaces below, as well as skin of the axilla and upper medial aspects of the arms.