

A dermatome is the area of cutaneous distribution of a single spinal nerve; there is considerable overlap between adjacent dermatomes.

The fourth thoracic spinal nerves supply a band of skin around the thorax over the fourth intercostal spaces extending to the middle of the third intercostal spaces above and the fifth intercostal spaces below to the level of the nipples.