When you first enter the software or when you select Open Database from the File menu, you will get a list of available databases. The software will search all available drives to find all of the ProPhone databases. Double-click on the database that you want to view to open it.