Note: Software Equity ID

After the end user has made their first Software Equity purchase they will be assigned a Software Equity number. This number should be used on all subsequent Equity transactions regardless of the dealer they choose to purchase IBM products from. The end user must include their Software Equity Number on all transactions to have their end user volumes tracked by IBM for potential additional savings via other IBM license agreements.

IBM Software Equity TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 1. By signing this Software Equity Transaction form you are certifying that all the information is true and accurate and you are agreeing to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and this program.
- 2. You agree that IBM shall have the right to audit your business records for purposes of determining your compliance with the terms of this Agreement and this Program and the documents referenced herein, and you agree to provide IBM whatever assistance IBM may require of you performing such audits.
- 3. IBM reserves the right to recover amounts paid to you, otherwise due IBM, as a result of fraudulent or duplicative claims, an IBM mistake (including overpayment), or your non-compliance with the terms and conditions of, this Agreement or the documents referenced herein, by offsetting such amounts against credits or rebates, as well as other credits or amounts, owed or available to you under this this Program, in addition to any other rights or remedies IBM may have at law or equity.
- 4. Only eligible IBM part numbers will be considered for this program.
- 5. Resellers may not participate in the IBM Software Equity Program as end users.
- 6. The original invoice and/or Sales Receipt must be attached to this transaction form to be eligible for the rebate.
- 7. The Software Equity Transaction form must be signed by the end user to receive credit. If the reseller wishes to participate, the reseller must also sign this form.
- 8. The Software Equity end user rebate offer may not be combined with any other rebate offer unless expressly authorized by such offer.
- 9. IBM reserves the right to modify or terminate this program at any time.
- 10. Transaction forms must be received by IBM within three months of the date of the supporting invoice/receipt to be eligible for the rebate.
- 11. In the event that the end-user returns any eligible products for which they received a rebate under this program, End-User agrees to reimburse, to IBM, the rebated amount received for said return product.
