

The indefinite adjectives (or pronouns) few, a few and many express a notion of quantity and are used before a countable plural noun.

- We use few to stress a very small quantity.

Example: He has few friends.