

- To be going to is used to express a conviction whilst will only expresses a prediction, a statement.

Example:

There are lots of clouds. I'm afraid
it's going to rain today. (Speaker's conviction)
On Sunday it will rain on the south coast.
(Weather forecast)