

- To be going to is used to express a conviction whilst will only expresses a prediction, a statement.

Example:

There are lots of clouds. I'm afraid it's going to rain today.
(Speaker's conviction)

On Sunday it will rain on the south coast.
(Weather forecast)