

A - Construction

The past continuous is formed thus:

were or was (past simple of "be") + -ing

B - Use

The past continuous expresses an action taking place in the past.

Example:

When he arrived, I was cooking.

What were you doing up so late at night?