

Ministry of Justice

The Ministry of Justice is responsible for developing the law and the administrative process with transparency; protecting the rights and liberties of the people; assisting and providing the knowledge of law to the people; protecting, preventing, correcting and rehabilitating drug-addicts; enforcing in civil cases and criminal cases; rehabilitating the offenders. The structure of the Ministry of Justice is as follows:

Departments under the Ministry of Justice

- ◆ Office of the Minister
- ◆ Office of the Permanent Secretary
 - Office of Justice Affairs
 - Legal Execution Department

Cluster for Directing Justice Affairs

- ◆ Special Investigation Department
- ◆ Central Institution of Forensic Science of Thailand

Cluster for Promoting Justice Affairs

- ◆ Rights and Liberties Protection Department
- ◆ Probation Department

Cluster for Controlling and Developing Behavior

- ◆ Observation and Protection of Children and Juveniles Department
- ◆ Correction Department

Office under the Ministry of Justice (Directly accountable to the Minister of Justice)

- ◆ Office of the Narcotics Control Board

Non-Ministry of Justice Offices (Directly) accountable to the Ministry of Justice

- ◆ Office of the Attorney General
- ◆ Anti-Money Laundering Office