Play Button

The Play button lets you play a selected song. Just click the Play button, then the song plays.

The track number and time is displayed above the Tunes Player's buttons.

Pause Button

The Pause button lets you pause while playing a song. You can pause a song at any time by simply clicking the Pause button.

Stop Button

The Stop button stops the song that is playing. You can stop a song at any time by simply clicking the Stop button.

Previous Track Button

The Previous Track button lets you change to the track that is before the song that is currently playing.

If you are in the middle of a song and click the Previous Track button, TuneLand changes to the previous track, which is the beginning of the current song. If you want to change to the song before the one you are playing, you must click the Previous Track button twice.

Next Track Button

The Next Track button lets you change to the track that is after the song that is currently playing.

Selecting a Song

You can select a song to play from the list below the buttons. You can also press the Previous or Next Track buttons until you find the song you want.

To select a song:

1. Move the cursor to the down arrow by the list of songs.
2. Click the left mouse button to look at the list of songs.
3. Use the arrows to scroll through the list.
4. Click the song that you want to play.
