

Welcome

Welcome to TurboSFX for Windows 95 / NT 4.0

TurboSFX - File Compression, Self-Extractor and Installer. TurboSFX allows you to package your data and files in a variety of ways. You can make 16 and 32 bit self-extracting executable files (SFX) ready to be self-decompressed, run, or installed. You can easily package your programs and contents for streamlined delivery across local and wide-area networks, or over the Internet that requires minimal or no effort for the recipients to use your files. You can also simply package your files as Archives (ZIP).

Important! Please read the Software License Agreement before using this software. For tech support, dealer inquiry, additional licenses, or other information, please select the corresponding topics.
