

INSIDE

Each Monthly Issue of

You will find:

- Education
- Recreation
- Information
- Illumination
- and above all
- Compu-Prestidigitation*

* compu-prestidigitation (kóm-pū-prĕs-tĕh-dĭ-jĕh-tā-shŭn) —n. 1. The magical quality of unexpected comprehension that results from presenting technical information about computers in a lively, entertaining, visually attractive and easy to understand format. 2. The magical tricks that make a computer sing, dance, and do all sorts of wonderfully useful things.

Come Discover A Truly Unique Magazine

HERE IS WHAT YOU COULD BE READING—

● How To Write Your Own Programs ● Using Simple Printer Graphics ● Space and Combat Games in TI BASIC ● Text-to-Speech: How It Works ● TMS9900 Machine and Assembly Language ● Planning and Forecasting in TI BASIC ● U.C.S.D. Pascal & Third Party Development Systems ● LOGO and Lamplighter ● A Music Text Editor ● Homework Helper: Fractions ● Computer Chess ● The Joy of Computer Gaming ● Designing Your Own Computer Game ● Bit-Plot Printer Graphics ● A BASIC Program That Writes BASIC Programs ● Fundamentals of Assembly Language Programming ● Games of Time and Direction ● Computer Inventory ● A Joystick Video Game in TI LOGO ● Homework Helper: Division ● Computer Techniques for Tutoring the Mentally Handicapped ● Computer Games to Learn Music ● New LOGO Commands and the Dynaturtle ● The Secret of Personal Record Keeping ● User Group News ● New Products ● Programming Tips ● 3-D Animation with the TI-99/4A ● Battle Star Video Game ● The Beginner's Guide to Cassette Operation with the Home Computer ● Dynamic Manipulation of Screen Characters: Graphics ● How to Start A Users Group ● Verbose: A Speech Vocabulary Expansion Aid ● Color Mapping ● Pre-School Block Letters on the Home Computer ● How To Produce Spectacular Sound Effects ● Course Designer Authoring System: A Review of the Texas Instruments Lesson-Development Software ● Information Utilities and the Electronic Cottage ● Data Communications ● Software Conversions: TRS-80 to TI BASIC ● The Small Investor and the TI-99/4A ● The Electronic Home Secretary ● Typing Tutor ● TI LOGO and the Space Shuttle ● Civil Engineering Fundamentals ● Catch and Match Games in TI BASIC and TI Extended BASIC ● Interfacing a Digitizer ● Calculating Loan Payoffs with the Rule of 78 ● A Look at the Mini-Memory Module ● How to Buy A Computer ● Screen Dump Design ● Avoiding Turtle Traps in LOGO ● Beginner's Tips ● Game Designer Interviews ● Using Random Access Files ● High-Speed Animation with Sprites ● Space Arcade Games ● The Tex-Thello Computer Challenge ● Pig-Latin in TI LOGO ● Software Conversions: Applesoft to TI BASIC ● Math Puzzles in TI LOGO ● Music & CAI with Gifted Children ● Learning to Type with a "Pocket Program" Drill ● 3rd-Party Software Development News ● Microcomputer-Based Management Applications ● Interactive Forms Generator ● Business Software Reviews ● Adding Your Own Disk Drives ● An Oracle for the Home Computer ● A Look at TI's Editor/Assembler ● Projects Around the Home for the Beginning Computer User ● Precautions and Programming Ideas for the Beginner ● Chatting With Your Micro: Languages on the Home Computer ● Micro Bartender ● The TI-99/2 Basic Computer, Hex-bus, & 4/A Connection ● Touring Compact Computer Country: A New Series of Portables ● And Much, Much More!

Learn, Play, Experience & Explore The Magical World of Home Computing with 99'er Home Computer Magazine

SUBSCRIBE TODAY—And Start Building Up Your Personal Library
Of Informative Articles, Valuable Programs, & Special-Interest Supplements Like Those Shown Here . . .

