A Message from the President:

On behalf of the WADA Executive Board of Directors, I would like to welcome you to the 44th annual WADA Workshop and the Chula Vista Resort & Conference Center!

Professional Development---We are very proud of the professional development opportunities provided at this conference and the opportunity to network with peers and mentors. We believe the information and training you gain is relevant to your role in athletic administration and will be immediately applicable to your responsibilities. This year we are proud to welcome three featured keynote speakers, Bruce Brown from Proactive Coaching LLC, Barry Alvarez, University of Wisconsin-Madison Athletic Director, and Dr. Stuart Robertshaw, nationally well-known humorist.

Professional Development is the focus of this workshop with 12 NIAAA Leadership Training Institute courses, all of which can be taken for credit through Edgewood College. Additionally, there are 18 diverse mini-sessions planned by Pam Huston, CAA, D.C. Everest, as part of the responsibilities of President Elect. There is also a Packer Party on Sunday evening, a Monday Night Football party with a slider grill and ice cream sundae bar and a great Fellowship of Christian Athletes Breakfast on Tuesday morning with a featured speaker. We ask that you make sure to visit the eighty-plus vendors at our workshop this year. It is because of them and their generous support that we can offer an outstanding professional conference every year.

Distinguished Service Recognition---We look forward to the opportunity to recognize individuals who are great contributors to athletic programs across the state as we honor recipients of our Distinguished Service Award at the banquet on Sunday night. Their countless hours of service insure quality programs and opportunities for student athletes state-wide. We also look forward to recognizing our own colleagues who have represented their schools and communities with such professionalism at our Awards Luncheon on Monday.

Appreciation---We gratefully acknowledge our keynote presenters, mini-session presenters & presidors, LTI faculty, our retired athletic directors who come back each and every year, and all of the other athletic administrators that have worked so hard to make this Workshop a success. A special thank you goes to our partners: Dave Anderson, WIAA Executive Director; Deb Hauser, WIAA Liaison to the WADA Executive Board; and the WIAA staff.

I would like to extend the Board's thanks to Rebecca Walters, Amber Kaminski and their great staff here at the Chula Vista Resort & Conference Center for their assistance with the planning and implementation of this year's event. We hope your family is here to enjoy the many wonderful amenities of this resort and we hope you agree that this location is a family-oriented site that meets the professional needs of our organization and the personal needs of our athletic administrators and their families.

I would ask for your assistance in extending appreciation to the WADA Executive Board for their hard work throughout the year on behalf of all members. The WADA E-Newsletter took off this year and I would like to recognize Luke Francois, CMAA, Middleton and WADA Vice President, who took over as editor. Additionally, I would like to acknowledge the efforts of the Board in undertaking the special project of the WADA Coach Handbook. Their time, dedication and commitment to “all things WADA” has been remarkable and they have lived this year’s theme, Athletic Administration- Whatever it takes! I would also like to acknowledge the support of the Holmen School Board, administration, coaches, community and my family as I undertook responsibilities as a WADA Board member and officer.

WADA Workshop Experience---Your Board has worked hard to make this a great professional growth opportunity and one where you can connect with others across the state. We hope you take time to make new friends and have some FUN!! Again, welcome to the WADA Workshop and Chula Vista!
