

A certain portion of the work of man must be for his bread - and that is his Labour; - with the sweat of his face, for accomplished as a daily task - and ended as a daily task - with the prayer - Give us each day our daily bread.
 But another portion of man's work is that in which according to his ^{separate} power, gift and strength, he carries forward the purposes of God for his Race: accepts from his Sires their ^{separate} knowledge and their ^{and their} ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~and~~ ^{and} adds ^{to the temple of truth} to it his store of true craftsmanship - bequeaths his ^{own piece and} ~~work~~ ^{part of} the immortal of work of this World - ~~to the Future. be it here~~ in his own place - ~~and the prayer for~~ this work is - ^{year - the work of our hands, Establish them} ~~They will be done, on earth, as~~ ~~it is in Heaven~~ ^{honestly, in our own life of today} and the toil of the hands, for the life - today is our 'labour'.
 But the toil of hand and heart, honestly - for the future of life of other - is our 'opus' - of which when well done - the angels may say, 'Perfect opus' - Perfectus - Did it thoroughly, and of which before ^{his} eyes are closed, the promise is to every servant of God. 'He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied'.