Contents

The installation of NetColorz is very straight forward. At the time of installation the program file and its help file are placed into the directory you indicate. A Windows Program Manager group called PolyVision is created and the program and help file icons are placed within it

Current (temporary) Directory
The directory where the installation files are currently located.

Directory to install NetColorz into
Indicates the directory into which you wish to install NetColorz.

Begin Install
Installs NetColorz into the directory you have indicated.

Cancel Install
Stops the installation process and closes the setup program.

Help
Brings you to this help file.